

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

So much is happening so very quickly now that our tipping point has come.

On that note, I would love to particularly acknowledge those who stepped up and got me over the line in recent exhausting and overwhelming months:

Tim Whan

Roberts & Morrow Accountants (Nath, Michelle, & Paul) in Armidale

Webb & Boland Solicitors (Brendan Moylan) in Moree

My family and handful of close friends

Saint Felicity "aka Flip" Nolen in Leeton

Our SITC family - always.

... these are the people who have really stepped up recently to hold my hand or lend a paw and have walked me through the intense and exhausting process of 'becoming' a national charity. I would not have crossed the final hurdle without their entirely pro-bono support.

I would also love to thank the men and women who have thrown a bit of pocket money my way to keep me in food and water, and fill the car and pay the odd bill. Extraordinary acts of generosity from across rural Australia including from people I've never even met have pushed me to keep going when I wanted to curl up into a ball and falter.

Thank you especially to incredibly generous surprise leg-ups from Alan & Laurel, Mamma-T, Leisel, Andrew, Meggsy, Belle, Flip, Mum & Dad, the Whans, and those helped out with our mini fundraiser in 2017. Because of you we are still standing and now ready to really get stuck in.

And to Ben and the Australian Story crew for putting up with me being a really massive Diva and understanding the non-negotiable terms, conditions, direction and parameters I shamelessly and constantly demanded of them.
